DESCRIPTION

Land for sale with mixed-use zoning Bacalar, Quintana Roo Land available for real estate development with mixed-use zoning (residential / tourism), allowing for the planning of projects such as a hotel, condominiums, or cabins, in accordance with applicable regulations. The property is located in one of the areas with the greatest tourism potential in Quintana Roo, in the immediate vicinity of the Laguna de Bacalar, known as the Lagoon of Seven Colors, recognized for its natural appeal and sustained growth in tourism. As an additional option, two adjoining lots are also available for sale, which makes it possible to increase the total area of the project and expand the scope of the investment, subject to availability and terms of sale. This land represents an alternative for investors looking to develop in an area with both tourism and residential vocation, in a highly sought-after natural setting.
