DESCRIPTION

Condo located in Aldea Zamá, Tulum, Quintana Roo, within one of the most sought-after master-planned residential areas in the region. The property stands out for its modern, minimalist architecture, with a design that harmoniously blends natural and contemporary elements. The project incorporates clean lines and the use of materials such as wood, concrete, and local stone, creating a functional, understated atmosphere in keeping with its surroundings. The common areas, which include terraces and a pool, are surrounded by tropical vegetation, encouraging a connection with nature. The interiors feature an open layout and excellent natural light, thanks to large windows that offer views of private gardens or common areas, depending on the location of the unit. The neutral color palette used in the design contributes to an atmosphere of tranquility, characteristic of the Tulum lifestyle. The condo is suitable for both residential use and investment, according to its location and general features. It is delivered furnished and equipped. The unit has a balcony and plunge pool overlooking the rear garden. Unit: 101
