DESCRIPTION

Studio for sale in Aldea Zamá, Tulum, Quintana Roo The property stands out for its modern, minimalist architecture, with a design that harmoniously blends natural and contemporary elements. The project incorporates clean lines and materials such as wood, concrete, and local stone, creating an understated, functional atmosphere. The common areas, which include terraces and a pool, are surrounded by tropical vegetation, which helps integrate the development with its natural surroundings. The interiors are characterized by an open layout and excellent natural light, thanks to large-format windows that offer views of private gardens or common areas, depending on the location within the community. The neutral color palette used in the design contributes to a calm atmosphere in keeping with the setting of Tulum. The studio is a suitable option for both residential use and investment, according to its features and location. It is delivered furnished and equipped. The unit has a balcony with a street view. Unit: 202
